VOLUNTEER PROFILE

Valerie Jensen

Valerie has lived in Montana since the spring of 2012 and the second day she arrived here she began volunteering for the children's programs at North Valley Public Library.

As a retired elementary teacher she missed being around kids in a learning environment so she volunteered here at the library. Valerie likes that our small town library focuses on services for the whole family, that there is something for everyone, and that everyone is included. She loves interacting with kids and families and sharing her absolute favorite thing, learning through books and stories. In her five years in Montana, she has formed a few favorite places including North Valley Public Library, the balcony of Many Glacier Lodge in Glacier National Park, Brownies Hostel in East Glacier Village, Two Medicine Lake in Glacier National Park, Kootenai Creek Trail, and Lee Metcalf Wildlife Refuge.

Valerie travels part of the year to Southern California for business. She enjoyed traveling for family vacations throughout the western United States as a child, and enjoyed family RV camping with her husband and kids at the California beaches, the Sea of Cortez in Baja, California, and fondly remembers a 6-week trip with her son to Peru where they saw Machu Picchu. Of all of her accomplishments, Valerie is most proud of writing and directing plays for elementary schools and being a mom.

Valerie's hobbies include being a library "addict," reading, crocheting, hiking, yoga, and gazing at the Bitterroot mountains. Her favorite authors are Jan Karon, Jacqueline Winspear, J.A. Vance, Dianna Gabaldon, Gary Paulsen, Robinson McKinley, and Cynthia Voight. Valerie recommends the books Anne of Green Gables, the Harpist in the Wind trilogy, and Under the Tuscan Sun. As far as films go, she loves the Lord of the Rings Trilogy, You've Got Mail, Ella Enchanted, They Company, the early Star Wars trilogy, and Man from Snowy River.

We love having Valerie volunteer with the children at our library and are so lucky to have her as part of our community.

Thank you Valerie!

Library Staff Recommend...

BILL BRYSON
Link Pribbling

The Road to Little Dribbling by Bill Bryson A travelogue with a difference; 61 year old Bill Bryson has turned into a grumpy old man, and his reflections are laugh out loud funny as he wanders the length of Britain. NVPL has the book and audiobook.

The Lies of Locke Lamora is a fantasy novel by Scott Lynch. Thrilling, death defying adventures in the first book of the Gentleman Bastard series. Thieves and priests struggling for survival in a faraway land, the series rivals the Game of Thrones in action, thrills and fight scenes.

Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce Recently retired Harold is on his way to the postbox to mail a letter to a critically ill colleague, but finds himself on an impromptu walk across England to deliver it in person. His walk allows him time to think, examine his life and meet interesting people. This is a great summer read about an unassuming man with a kind soul. A hike across the UK just makes good sense to getting your priorities back on track.

How to Talk to Your Animals by Jean Craighead George

A wonderful book of insights into how domestic animals speak to each other, to us, and how we can speak to them in a way they understand.

The Scoop on Poop by Dan Chiras. The issue of adequate fresh water is highly correlated to the modern flush toilet. One of the easiest methods to save thousands of gallons of water each year is by using simple composting methods that anyone can

Series: What if you had Animal...? by Sandra Markle. This fun series explores what would happen if you looked in the mirror and saw an animal's ears, teeth, feet, etc. instead of your own. A nonfiction series that teaches the function of different animals parts in a fun and interesting way.

Hours: Monday—Friday, 10 a.m.- 7 p.m. Saturday, 10 a.m.- 5 p.m. Sunday CLOSED 208 Main Street, STEVENSVILLE, MT

Montana Author of the Month: Pete Fromm

At twenty years old, Pete Fromm heard of a job babysitting salmon eggs, seven winter months alone in a tent in the Selway-

Bitterroot Wilderness. Leaping at this chance to be a mountain man, with no experience in the wilds, he left the world. Thirteen years later, he published his beloved memoir of that winter, Indian Creek Chronicles --Into the Wild with a twist.

Twenty five years later, he was asked to return to the wilderness to babysit more fish eggs. But no longer a footloose twenty year old, at forty-five, he was the father of two young sons. He left again, alone, straight into the heart of Montana's Bob Marshall wilderness, walking a daily ten mile loop to his fish eggs through deer and elk and the highest density of grizzly bears in the lower 48 states.

The Names of the Stars is not only a story of wilderness and bears but also a trek through a life lived at its edges, showing how an impulsive kid transformed into a father without losing his love for the wilds.

Find Fromm's books in the Montana room, new book shelf and audiobook sections.

Kid's Guest Reviewer:

Ava has been coming to the NVPL since she was two, and is an avid reader.

Ava really likes the Boxcar Children series of books, originally by elementary school teacher Gertrude Chandler Warner.

In Ava's words "It's a great series if you like mysteries that are not scary. They are adventurous and fun and there are a ton of them, over 150 books, so you don't run out."

The whole series is based on the same main characters; a resourceful and independent group of children who go and live in an abandoned
